Sexual and reproductive health and rights in Zambia
Youth Parliamentarians Information Event
March 8th and 9th, 2015 (You should only attend one session)
Longacres Lodge, Lusaka, Zambia
16:30 – 19:00 hours

Who is this event for?  All Youth Parliamentarians

The event aims to help you:

- Consider how policymakers use evidence
- Understand the legal framework for termination of pregnancy in Zambia
- Understand the health, social and economic consequences of unintended pregnancies and abortion in Zambia
- Engage with the most up-to-date research and facts on sexual and reproductive health in Zambia
- Have an insight into the barriers that some young women face in accessing sexual and reproductive health services in Zambia

Presenters
- Dr Bellington Vwalika (Head of Department, Obstetrics and Gynaecology, UTH)
- Dr Ernestina Coast (London School of Economics)
- Dr Emily Freeman (London School of Economics)

Event Chair  Ms Violet Murunga (AFIDEP)

Using Twitter?  #YP2015